

MILITIA POLICES FIRE SWEEP HOT SPRINGS

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 8.—With two companies of militia policing the burned district, the citizens' committee devoted itself Sunday to systematizing relief measures and planning for the rehabilitation of the fire-swept eastern section of Hot Springs. Sunday night's checking up shows that all of those made homeless by the fire Friday night have been housed temporarily and their immediate needs provided for. Special offers of bread and other necessities have arrived from Little Rock and offers of financial aid have been received from a number of cities.

Against the monetary loss, estimated at $5,000,000 it is authoritatively stated that approximately $2,000,000 in insurance was carried.

At the request of the citizens' committee, the railroads entering Hot Springs refused to run special trains Sunday but all of the regular trains were crowded to their capacity with sightseers. The crowd, however, was orderly.

The Iron Mountain railroad took the initiative in building when a force of 200 men started work Sunday morning on the construction of a temporary wooden building near the site of its burned station.

DOCTOR FOUND DEAD ON EVE OF WEDDING

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 8.—Dr. R. M. Van Cleave of Muncie, who was on his way to Marshall, Ill., to marry Miss Lillian Brosman, was found dead in his room in a local hotel late Sunday. Apparently he died in convulsions. Coroner F. H. Jett said there was no indication of self destruction and announced that an autopsy would be held.

Dr. Van Cleave arrived in Terre Haute Saturday night and went to the hotel. He was to have been married at noon Sunday but missed the morning train. After telephoning to Marshall that he would drive through in an automobile he returned to his room. When he did not reach Marshall, relatives of Miss Brosman, thinking he might have met with an accident, started to Terre Haute. He was found lying on the bed in his room and apparently had been dead more than two hours. Dr. Van Cleave formerly was interne at a local hospital where he met Miss Brosman, who was a trained nurse.

SECOND MARRIAGE GETS FATHER'S BLESSING

ELWOOD, Ind., Sept. 8.—A second marriage according to church ceremony obtained the blessing of a bride's father here Sunday when Clemens Eckhoff, a St. Louis furniture man, found his 16-year-old daughter, Dorothy, already legally bound to Lloyd Zerface of this city through a ceremony performed a month ago by the groom's father, a justice of the peace.

Zerface, a chauffeur, fell in love with his employer's daughter and was discharged. On Aug. 8 the girl let herself out of her window at midnight by means of a rope and joined Zerface, waiting below.

When the young girl's father located the couple through detectives, he hurried here and insisted upon a wedding which was held in the Catholic church. That brought his forgiveness.

TAKES UP DUTIES.

LAPORTE, Ind., Sept. 8.—J. G. Hamaker, formerly secretary of a Y. M. C. A. in Bay City, Mich., has entered on his new duties as secretary of the Laporte Y. M. C. A. Mr. Hamaker was chosen after several months, during which time George F. Allison, physical director of the association acted as secretary.

STOLE MELONS.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 8.—Edward Wogerman, age 21, and Horace McCurdy, age 17, are under arrest on a charge of breaking into freight cars in the Big Four yards and stealing watermelons. The arrest was made by Detective Larrimore, of the Big Four company.

MISS GLADYS MASON

Who is walking from

New York to San Francisco.

HEAR HER TELL

1—Why she is walking.

2—Why exercise is essential for good health.

3—How to diet for best health.

4—Who and what she is.

5—Her experiences while en route.

This is the girl whose hand-some picture appeared in New York and Chicago papers a few months ago, when she advertised for a man to accompany her.

She arrived in South Bend late Friday evening, having made 55 miles in the one day, breaking her previous record of 52 miles.

After much persuasion she has consented to appear Monday night as an added attraction at the New Columbia.
